Wendy Marquis Art

Capturing the Rural Romance of Montana and the American West

Whether you live in Montana, you've spent time here, or you dream of one day visiting our beautiful wide-open spaces and gorgeous landscapes, Montana and the American West hold a special fascination for you.

Nature, backcountry landscapes, ranches and the animals that inhabit them, old trucks and rural scenery – these are the subjects you're drawn to in the art you collect, a vision of the West full of nostalgia and romanticism.

Whether you grew up on a ranch, come from a rural background, or you're a committed city dweller, you want art that reflects these quintessential Western motifs in a contemporary way, and brings the romance of the American West into your home.

Welcome to Wendy Marquis Art.

I'm artist Wendy Marquis. My work is a contemporary interpretation of old pickup trucks, Montana landscapes, farm and ranch animals, grain bins, barns, and other iconic rural Western scenery, but with a modern vibe. I like to say that I "capture rural romance."

My paintings, prints, cards and other work embody the essence of the rural west: big blue skies, billowy clouds, towering trees, fields full of tall grasses, and the old trucks embedded in these landscapes.

My aim is to create art that is timeless, art that honors and preserves ephemeral scenes that may not be around forever, and to capture a place that rests in the past and in the present of the rustic American West.

I envision my collectors sitting in front of one of my paintings, feeling the heat of the sun and the openness of the vast and beautiful Montana landscape, dreaming themselves right into the painting.

I invite you to view more of my work in my Gallery here, where you can view both prints and originals, [Bold copy will link to Gallery page] or learn more about me here. [Bold copy will link to About page].

I also teach fun & social "Cocktails & Creativity" art classes in which I give step-by-step instruction to students as they create their paintings in my incredible studio and gallery in an historic one-hundred-year-old bank building. [Bold copy will link to your Art Classes page].
